

Palestine in Crisis

from bad to worse, and no end in sight

Events since the Al-Aqsa Intifadah have plunged Palestine into a situation it has never been in before.

The number of people living below the poverty line has dramatically increased to record levels due to job losses as a result of frequent blockades of the West Bank and Gaza. The continuing strife has had a crippling effect on the Palestinian economy and way of life.

Although the food parcels we are distributing are a much needed contribution, other forms of assistance especially medical care, education and training are also desperately needed to help bring normality back to the people of Palestine.
